KE COUNSELS SPEAKERS TO "TELL TRUTH"

Washington (AP) — President Eisenhower told Republican campaigners today that they need only to tell the truth about his administration to win the election.

Eisenhower spoke at a sendoff breakfast for Vice President Nixon and other Republican leaders setting out on campaign tours.

Sounding a peace theme, Eisenhower said it is difficult to be as peaceful in the present day world as Americans would like to be. He said that while we may be as peaceful as possible, someone else may make an aggressive move that would disturb that peace.

Eisenhower, wearing a beaming smile, walked into the dining room with GOP National Chairman Leonard W. Hall.

Eisenhower chatted animatedly with Nixon as he ate.

Secretary of Interior Fred Seaton, Sen. Knowland of California, Rep. Joseph W. Martin Jr., and Rep. Charles Halleck, also embarking on tours, were seated at the head table.

The occasion brought out a large turnout of newsmen who outnumbered party members and White House staffers about 2-1 among the crowd of 225.

Eisenhower, in a brown suit and looking fit, ate a hearty breakfast. He had melon, ham and scrambled eggs, whole wheat toast and skimmed milk.

Nixon, speaking briefly after Eisenhower finished, urged the Republicans to follow the advice of a Democrat, the late Al Smith, who used to say over and over again: "Let's look at the record."

Duff Says Clark "Misrepresenting" His Voting Record

New Castle (AP) — Senator James H. Duff, Republican candidate for re-election, says his Democratic opponent, Joseph S. Clark, is going "all over the state falsifying my voting record in Congress."

Terming Clark's allegations about his voting record "deliberate misrepresentation of facts," Duff last night told a Lawrence County GOP rally he was amazed because "I thought he Clark was going to be on the level in this campaign."

The former governor said Clark "is boosting Estes Kefauver for vice president and telling what a wonderful man he is and what a wonderful vice president he would make and then he turns around in the same breath and says that I don't attend sessions regularly."

"Duff said that 'in the first two sessions of the Congress of the Eisenhower administration my attendance was 16 per cent greater than Kefauver's.'"

"Furthermore," Duff said, "Clark is one of the national officers of Americans for Democratic Action." Duff added a wish that the people of the state "during this campaign get to know accurately what the program of the ADA is."

Duff said the ADA stands for: "Financial aid to Communist China—you might as well give financial aid to Khrushchev and Bulganin."

"The inevitable recognition of Communist or Red China."

"World government in order to get peace."

Tickets for Homecoming Day Smoker Are Being Distributed

Sports Booster "Homecoming Day" plans continued to move along last night when tickets for the annual event were distributed at a Booster meeting in YMCA.

The tickets will entitle holders to attend a stag smoker Friday, October 5, at Marconi Outing Club. Present for a 9:30 talk will be Ken Coleman, Cleveland Browns sportscaster and Ray Sorensen, Warren's only athlete ever to achieve the Olympics.

Also on deck as honored guests will be members of the Dragon team from 1926, an eleven defeat-

General Easing of Tension Is Reported in Kentucky Cities Torn by Segregation Disputes

By The Associated Press

A general easing of tension was reported today in two western Kentucky mining-farming towns where National Guardsmen stood ready to prevent further anti-integration disorders.

White pupils were expected to return in increasing numbers to the consolidated school at Clay after four Negroes abandoned efforts to attend classes there.

The four Negro children were barred from the combined high and elementary school after a county school board order banning them was read on the school steps. They will attend a Negro school at nearby Providence.

The four had been escorted to school by National Guardsmen. Adj. Gen. J. J. B. Williams, commander, said the troops would remain at Clay and Sturgis, 11 miles away, indefinitely.

At Sturgis High School, where eight Negroes are enrolled with 275 white pupils, there were signs of a growing boycott on the part of the white pupils. Only 73 were in class yesterday, and W. W. Waller Jr., president of the Union County White Citizens Council, predicted the boycott would increase.

Registration began quietly at the University of Alabama in Tuscaloosa, scene of rioting last February when Autherine Lucy Foster enrolled as the first Negro student at the all-white university. She later was expelled for her unproved charges that school authorities conspired in the rioting that drove her from the campus Feb. 6.

Ne Negro applicants appeared on the campus yesterday. At Montgomery, Gov. James E. Folsom told newsmen that two Negro students expected to enroll apparently had gone to some other school. The Alabama highway patrol had been alerted "as a precautionary measure."

A Negro ex-soldier, John O. Lyon, 23, yesterday became the first of his race to enroll at the Gaston, N. C. Technical Institute, a branch of the University of North Carolina. A few white students complained. James I. Mason, director of the school, said it was the last part of the Consolidated University of North Carolina to accept Negroes.

Clark Says Small Business Needs More Protection

Erie (AP) — Joseph S. Clark Jr., Democratic candidate for the U. S. Senate, says neither the Eisenhower administration nor his Republican opponent, Sen. James H. Duff, "has acted constructively to overcome the ever-increasing squeeze on small business."

The former Philadelphia mayor charged both the administration and Duff with failing to represent the interests of Pennsylvania's small businessmen.

Clark called for stricter enforcement of anti-trust laws to protect small business. He also asked that "a greater share of defense contracts be channelled in the direction of the small manufacturer."

Clark repeated his charges that Duff "was absent 37 per cent of the time at important roll call votes his first five years in office."

ROBBERY SUSPECT

Pittsburgh (AP) — Pittsburgh police today questioned a man with a record of armed robbery in connection with the $1,400 holdup of a loan company office in suburban Mt. Oliver. The suspect, George Riston of Pittsburgh, was arrested last night by city police several hours after the holdup at the General Public Loan Corp. Detectives said Riston was arrested on descriptions furnished by employees who were forced to lie on the floor during the daylight robbery.

Woman Plunges 21 Stories to Death in Pittsburgh

Pittsburgh (AP) — A 48-year-old woman plunged 21 stories to her death from a downtown office building yesterday after withdrawing her bank funds.

The body of Miss Dorothy Burkholder of the Crafon district was found on a narrow parapet just off the sixth floor of the Gulf Building where she was employed for many years as a senior clerk.

Conditional OK Is Given Jackson Run Control Plans

Some prospects for area flash flood controls were brought up and discussed at length at the regular meeting of Cosewango township supervisors held last evening at the office of F. A. Berry, secretary, at Starbuck.

According to a report of the meeting Mr. Berry read a letter from C. H. McConnell, Chief Flood Control Division, Dept. of Forests and Waters, notifying the Board in answer to their request that an emergency flood control project has been conditionally approved by the Department.

The channel of Jackson Run would be cleaned, widened, deepened and realigned from a point approximately 300 feet above the bridge on Route 62 at Venturetown to the Camp Jeffmore bridge, a total distance of approximately 5,000 feet. The improved channel to have a minimum bottom width of 50 feet. Materials excavated from the stream channel would be used to construct spoil dykes along the left bank. The left bank of the new channel between Kidder's bridge and Timothy Avenue will be covered with a blanket of dumped riprap.

All the work will be done by the Department of Forests and Waters including equipment and labor. The Township must provide the stone for the blanket riprap section of the project. The source of this stone must be within a reasonable distance of the project as this stone will be hauled and placed by the Department.

A resolution was adopted by the Board of Supervisors to sponsor this project.

Rights-of-entry will be required from each property owner along both banks of the stream, within the described limits of the work. If any property owner has not

Truman's Talk 'Political Hay' Adlai Declares

Washington (AP) — Adlai E. Stevenson says he has no doubt former President Truman—an ardent exponent of "give 'em hell" campaigning—is making political hay for him.

But Stevenson, who won the Democratic presidential nomination despite Truman's contention he was a "defeatist", is refusing to go along with Truman's statement that Alger Hiss was not a Communist spy.

Stevenson also balks at the term "legal racketeers" which Truman leveled at the Eisenhower administration, but does say he and the former President see eye to eye in condemning a situation he believes Truman had in mind in using the term.

"No one could feel more strongly than I do about the giveaways of our natural resources by this Eisenhower administration, to which, as I understand it, President Truman was referring, and not to the personal honesty or integrity of President Eisenhower," Stevenson told a news conference yesterday.

A reporter asked whether Truman's campaign speeches this year on behalf of the Democratic ticket have helped or hurt Stevenson's candidacy. Stevenson replied:

"Well, I have no doubt that they have helped the Democratic ticket. My impression is that the President (Truman) is a help, not a hindrance."

Democratic Faction Meeting Tonight to Discuss Barr Plan

According to a statement released today by Chester R. Walker, co-chairman of the Warren County Democratic Committee, "Mr. Walker and Robert Clark, both co-chairmen of Warren county, held a lengthy meeting last week with State Chairman Sen. Joseph Barr to decide the chairmanship of the county. Sen. Barr, with State Committeeman M. E. Anderson, of Warren county, told both co-chairmen that a resolution had been passed by the State Committee to iron out such problems as Warren county faces. Both were old the flip of a coin as the answer."

Mr. Walker agreed to the flip of the coin and thought this was a splendid idea to unite our committee people and work as Democrats. Mr. Clark, the other co-chairman, did not accept this agreement at the meeting and wanted to call on his committee.

Mr. Walker thought this is an election year and would bring unity to the party. Since then, Mr. Walker states that Democrats in the county have called and thanked him for working with all committee and not for a few. It is known that Clark had until Tuesday evening to reply to Sen. Barr with any answer, but not a decision.

From County Commissioner Lewis Crippen it was learned that Mr. Clark refused to the plan of flipping a coin to decide the chairmanship while in Harrisburg, on the basis that he wanted to take it up with his group in the committee. This will be done tonight at eight o'clock when the faction meets in the Pittsburgh Community House. It was stated that the entire situation will be canvassed with special reference to Sen. Barr's proposal and a decision will be reached.

Charges of unfair labor practices were preferred Monday against Thomas Flexible Company plant by the newly organized and striking local of the International Association of Machinists.

The filing of charges with the Cleveland office of National Labor Relations Board automatically postponed for an indefinite period the representational meeting between labor and management scheduled for 1 p. m. Wednesday.

At the plant, 32 striking employees maintain round-the-clock picket lines while about 50 other men continue to report for work each morning. However, all truck traffic in and out of the plant has been halted since the work stoppage began 13 days ago.

The newly organized IAM Local, headed by Howard Putnam, quit when wage talks were climaxed with the firing of an employee.

Professor of Agriculture in Native Holland Visitor Here

A solid Dutchman, Professor of Agriculture in his native land, is spending a few days in this vicinity at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Burdette Weller, Yankee Bush Road, studying local farms and methods.

Theo Huitenga is a noted English and agriculture teacher at the State Agricultural College in Groningen located in the north of the Netherlands.

He was crossing on the S. S. De Grote Beer when a shipboard acquaintance was struck up with Warren's Community Ambassador for 1956, Miss Sally Weller.

Miss Weller, sent to Europe to spend the summer with a foreign family in a program designed to promote international understanding, suggested to the professor that he visit her family's farm.

"Terrified" by the rush of New York City (though finding it extremely interesting), Theo found Washington, D. C., more to his liking. But after arriving here the professor stated "I like it here, and that's a fact."

The rural surroundings of this area seem to be more in keeping with the atmosphere to which the 36-year-old professor is accustomed. He stated that it would be of his delight to have a school near Warren where he might teach.

His pupils at Groningen are steeped in English in connection with agriculture. The "Leraar" also goes over the larger aspects of the entire picture and delves into social studies as they interconnect with farming in the realm of chief emigration countries, emigration problems, etc.

During the war, the professor was part of a slave labor army in Germany. He served as an interpreter in the Ruhr Valley at first until "demoted" to the front lines as a trench digger for aiding some friends. Only 40 per cent of his labor group survived.

Ambassador Weller spent the summer months at Apeldoorn, Holland.

The professor was sent to this country to study the farming methods and then lecture about them on his return.

Prototype of 'Crash-Proof' Car Is Displayed

New York (AP) — Designs were shown today for a "crash-proof" car that would permit its occupants to walk away after a head-on collision at 50 miles per hour.

A prototype of the safety car is now under construction. The project was announced by F. J. Crandell, vice president of the Liberty Mutual Insurance Co., and E. R. Dye, head of the safety design research department of the Cornell Aeronautical Laboratory.

The driver sits in the center of the car and steers with a two handled lever.

Chest pads, safety belts and bucket seats are provided for driver and passengers. One seat directly behind the driver faces to the rear.

Economist Predicts New Wave of Taxes In State Next Year

Pittsburgh (AP) — The assistant director of the Pennsylvania Economic League predicts that individual taxpayers and businessmen will be hit with a wave of new taxes at the next session of the Legislature.

Dr. David H. Kurtzman, Pittsburgh economist, said the state will be faced with a quarter billion dollar deficit in the next two years.

Dr. Kurtzman spoke yesterday at a meeting of representatives of 40 chambers of commerce and boards of trade.

He said the state will have to find more money to keep up with its spending program for school aid, mental health, state building and road projects. He said the next state budget will be at least $1,460,000,000.

The Pittsburgh economist said that next year Pennsylvania firms will pay taxes 10 times higher than those in Ohio and twice as much as those in West Virginia.

The meeting was arranged by the Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce for the purpose of "creating a better understanding of the problems affecting all communities in the Pittsburgh area."

White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said Eisenhower sent Nehru a message late last week in response to one received previously from Nehru. Hagerty declined to disclose any details.

Hoxsey Hearing Is Set to Open on October 8th

Pittsburgh (AP) — U. S. District Court will begin hearing testimony from about 250 defense and government witnesses Oct. 8 to determine whether a half million pills seized at the Hoxsey Cancer Clinic, Portage, Pa., should be destroyed.

Former U. S. Atty. John McIlvaine ordered the pills confiscated in March, 1955, because he said labels falsely stated the pills were effective in treating cancer.

The clinic is fighting to have the pills returned. Defense Atty. Vincent M. Casey said he expects to call about 100 witnesses to prove the clinic's case.

The Hoxsey clinic uses a cancer treatment, including the pills, developed by Harry Hoxsey, a Dallas, Tex., naturopath. The American Medical Association describes the treatment as worthless.

LEADER CONFERENCES

Harrisburg (AP) — Gov. Leader today will hold the first of regular "twice-a-week" news conferences which are scheduled to continue until the November election.

Thomas K. Hodges, the governor's press secretary, said the governor will hold a news conference every Tuesday and Thursday "until after the election". Leader customarily met with newsmen weekly since taking office.

AMBASSADORS AND FOREIGN MINISTERS READY TO TAKE UP "BIG THREE" PROPOSALS

London (AP) — Envoys from 18 nations today began intensive talks on the Western Big Three's latest plans for dealing with Egyptian President Nasser's nationalization of the Suez Canal.

The foreign ministers and ambassadors open formal sessions tomorrow to take up a Big Three proposal for a users' association to handle the passage of their ships through the waterway.

Secretary of State Dulles arrived by plane from Washington after a last-minute conference with President Eisenhower.

The second London Suez conference was assured 100 per cent attendance by Ethiopia's acceptance of the invitation. The 18 nations are those which, at last month's 22-nation London conference, supported the Big Three's plan for international control and operation of the canal.

Nasser, who nationalized the old Suez Canal Co. July 26, rejected the earlier plan and has denounced the proposal for a users' association as a "declaration of war."

As previously outlined, the association would employ veteran Suez pilots to take its own convoys through the canal, collect tolls and from them reimburse Egypt.

Nasser has warned that any move to force a convoy through the channel would mean war, an outcome most of the 18 nations are pledged to avoid.

One suggestion is that a guinea pig convoy should steam up to one entrance to the canal and request permission to pass through. If Nasser refused, the Big Three consider he could be accused in the United Nations of failing to observe the 1888 canal convention's promise of freedom of passage to all nations at all times.

Egypt, meanwhile, sent the Security Council a note asking it to keep a vigilant eye on the Suez situation. The Egyptians demanded an end to what they called pressure from Britain and France, and accused them of "shocking acts" in violation of the U. N. Charter. Egypt did not, however, ask for formal council action.

Some members of the 18-nation group, led by Sweden, Norway and Denmark, have said they want the matter referred to the U. N. before going ahead with the users' association scheme. Others indicated they favor a boycott of the canal now, sending ships around Africa and putting an economic squeeze on Egypt.

President Corresponding With Nehru About Canal

Washington (AP) — The White House says that President Eisenhower has exchanged correspondence with Prime Minister Nehru of India about the Suez Canal crisis.

White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said Eisenhower sent Nehru a message late last week in response to one received previously from Nehru. Hagerty declined to disclose any details.

Total of $1,000 Contributed To Fund To 'Help Save Rte. 6'

A total of $1,000 has been contributed in Warren County to the "Save Route 6 Committee" and will be used to further the fight which is being waged to retain Route 6 on the Federal Interstate System of Highways. The money is being added to funds collected from the other counties in the northern tier of Pennsylvania.

The following firms and organizations are cooperating in the financial support of the committee: United Refining Company; Struthers Wells Corp.; Hammond Iron Works; National Forge and Ordnance; Warren Plastics; General Concrete Products Co.; Betts Machine Company; Pennsylvania Furnace and Iron; Community Consumer Discount Co.; West Penn Oil Co.; Joseph H. DeFrees; Warren Transfer and Storage; Youngsville Business Peoples Association; Warren Area Chamber of Commerce; and Warren County Motor Club.

Chairman of the Save Route 6 Committee is Harry Garvin of Bradford; treasurer, Leroy G. Erickson, Bradford; secretary, Raymond D. Sill, Bradford; Donald Cook, Meadville; Charles Tranter, Warren; Rexford Heston, Potomato City Hotel; Hugo Wale, Wellsboro; and William Nichols of Clark Summit.

The committee is still waiting far an appointment with Governor Leader so that it may present petitions and make formal request for preserving Route 6 on the Federal Interstate System. Governor Leader has asked the federal government to remove Route 6 from the System and substitute a road from Sharon to Stroudsburg instead.

treasurer; Charles C. Smith, candidate for auditor general; Benjamin R. Jones, candidate for Supreme Court and G. Harold Watkins, candidate for Superior Court also in attendance. Rabbi Fred Ackerman will ask the invocation and W. Scott Calderwood, state committeeman from Warren county, will introduce the speakers.

Members of the local press and radio will interview the candidates at a press conference arranged for 11 o'clock. An opportunity for voters to meet the candidates personally will be afforded at 11:30 with the following reception committee: Judge Alexander C. Flick, Jr.; Jesse G. Smith, past chairman of the county Republican committee; E. H. Ley, treasurer, and Ralph E. Sires, secretary of the county Republican committee; M.

Candidates will be introduced to the audience shortly after noon and will speak briefly, allowing Senator Duff and Congressman Gavin the main speaking roles. The candidates will come to Warren from Erie where they will attend large rallies Wednesday, and will proceed to Williamsport for a dinner meeting Thursday evening.

Routine Reports Are Submitted At Red Cross Chapter Meeting

Conflicting activities cut down attendance at the quarterly board meeting of Warren County Red Cross Chapter, held Monday afternoon at the Warren Service Center, but routine reports were heard and action taken on a number of matters.

Chairman Ralph E. Sires made mention of the new Red Cross sign erected on the lawn at chapter headquarters; also of the very attractive float authorized at the last board meeting for the Jaycee Fourth of July Parade.

In addition to the treasurer's report, financial discussion included the statement monies are coming in satisfactorily to clean up Fund Campaign pledges; disaster relief funds were allotted for help of victims of recent flash floods.
Holger Elmquist reported on a bequest to the chapter and action was taken concerning its investment.

Mrs. Katherine Bell's summary of the Home Service work showed a total of 204 cases serviced, 14 investigations made in behalf of other chapters, 14 disaster relief investigations made, and $385.49 expended for her requirements.

In connection with the Blood
Program, it was stated the Buffalo mobile equipment will be at Sheffield Methodist church on Wednesday of this week; also at Youngsville on October 10.

Mrs. Harold Baker reported concerning recruiting for a new class in Nurse Aide instruction requested by Warren General Hospital, and mention was made that first aid and water safety classes will be under way soon.

Mrs. T. L. Armstrong told of filling an August quota for the Camp and Hospital Services; mentioned bed scuffles being made by a number of women's groups for the veterans' hospitals; and asked that all help with the collection of reading material for delivery in early November.

In connection with disaster relief work, Mr. Sires spoke of expansion of this committee, its facilities and personnel in a program being worked out as protection against emergencies of the future.

Junior Red Cross membership campaign material is being readied and will be distributed to county areas by Robert Hocken-berry, assistant superintendent of county schools, according to Secretary Irma Eba.

Exciting Home Accessories Show at Metzger-Wright's

Starting this week, the Metzger-Wright store will be featuring an exciting new collection of home furnishings accessories and, in that connection, will have a series of advertisements in the Wednesday issue of the Times-Mirror that every homemaker will want to see and study.

All except one or two of the items in the coordinated group feature a rooster design set between a series of diamonds—a motif that has been adapted by top manufacturers of fabrics, wallpaper, linens, glassware, enamelware, decorative trays, towels, shower curtains, etc.

The adaptability of the design to all these different items is quite unusual. With variations in scale and color they make high-style decorating possible at moderate cost.

The entire collection at Metzger-Wright's is also shown on the cover and in a seven-page decorating feature by Gertrude Brooks Dixon in the October issue of The American Home Magazine. It's called, appropriately, "Something to Crow About".

Drapery and slipcover fabrics by Waverly head the list of items. They come in 10 color combinations. In each of the 10 colors there is a choice of a gold rooster or a colored one, so there are actually 20 variations.

The Fallani & Cohn linens are done in turquoise-and-blue, charcoal-and-pink, khaki-and-red, and gold-and-mocha... as are the shower curtains by Koroseal and finger-tip towels by Fallani & Cohn.

The glassware and decorated toleware by Rubel & Co. are also available in these same combinations. Reese & Orr's delightful enamelware comes only in the turquoise-and-blue, and charcoal-and-pink combinations.

Every color combination is exciting in its own right and will work well as a continuous design element through several rooms, or—because of careful color selection—adapt to many an established decorating scheme.

No matter where this delightful rooster comes to roost, he seems to be perfectly at home. He readily fits into modern or provincial furnishings as well as any room in the house.

Your future health can be good or bad, depending on what you are doing now to protect it. If, when illness strikes, you delay seeking the skilled advice of your physician, you expose yourself to complications that later in your life may torment you.

Nature sends you pain or discomfort to warn you that something is wrong. Self treatment drugs that temporarily relieve that pain or discomfort, may hide a trouble that can become serious. Be wise. At the first sign of illness get your physician's advice and let him treat the real cause of your trouble.

Saron Lutheran Has Loyalty Dinner To Inaugurate Drive

Youngsville—A large and enthusiastic group attended the Loyalty Dinner of Saron Lutheran congregation in the high school cafeteria, when final arrangements were made for the Building Fund Appeal made on Sunday.

The Rev. C. J. Franzen opened the program with scripture and prayer and gave the closing Benediction. Gordon Clark led the group singing.

Toastmaster Kenneth Johnson introduced the Rev. Ludquist of Oil City, who spoke on "Permanent Values"; William Sandberg, who talked briefly on progress of the drive for funds; and E. F. MacMillan, campaign director from Minneapolis, whose topic was "Three Miracles".

Audrey Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Smith, Garland, left Thursday for a year of graduate study at the University of Rochester. She is on a scholarship granted by the Atomic Energy Commission, being one of two girls and 20 boys from the eastern part of the United States to be so honored. Miss Smith graduated last June from Mt. Holyoke College, where she majored in chemistry.

Leo Johnson went to Harrisburg last week for the dedication of the new administration building of Grange Headquarters.

Ted Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Smith, Garland, has returned to his studies in Medical School in Philadelphia, where he is in his third year.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fish visited Mrs. Freling in Chautauqua last week and found her much improved after a long illness.

Mrs. Wayne Cassatt, Russell, Kans., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Fish, for several weeks. Before returning home, she will visit her sister in Washington, D. C.

Shoes take on a long, slim look this fall and an air of elegance. Construction is soft and leather is luxurious. The ghillie with a continental air (upper left) has the long toe line in combination with sling back. Mid-heel is slimmed down to give illusion of high heel. Colors are taupe and black; leathers combine suede and calf. Opera pump (upper center) is in loden green calf with leaf design of tabacco suede inset. Spring-o-lator sandal in lustre kid leather (upper right) combines deep purple with mauve pink. The two shades are braided into a bowknot effect at the toe. Handsewn moccasin (lower left) has turned-down tongue effect at the throat-line. Color is pale champagne. Walking pump (lower center) has heel of highly-polished black calf accented with gold kid and mosaic-type buckle. Heavily grained kid leather is used (lower right) for afternoon pump in elephant gray with sweater band of luster gray calf. These six styles make up a high fashion shoe wardrobe for autumn.

SANE BALANCE IN NEWS REPORTING

Here's an interesting editorial on "local news coverage" as reprinted from the Hornell (N.Y.) Tribune:

Occasionally newspapermen are chided (in gentle, kindly and fraternal fashion as a rule) because they publish "so much" of this or that kind of news and "so little" of some other kind, so perhaps it is fitting to pause for a moment for an explanation equally replete with happy good will. It is sincerely pleasing to receive comments from readers, rebuking or commending. Yet the very lack of uniformity among newspaper well-wishers is indicative of something.

One reader wants more sports news; his neighbor thinks it might be better to fill that space with business and industrial news. Another reader is a "bug" on politics, and his ideal would be to sit down with a newspaper containing nothing but political news and comment.

Among thousands of other readers, some want more gardening, human interest, statewide, foreign, "freak," society, county, accident, crime, school, club, construction, litigation, or other types of news and would not care what other kinds were reduced or left out. People and their preferences, happily, are varied.

Providing a balance to the news content of every issue of a newspaper is an editor's never-ending solicitude. News items in any issue differ in degree even more in significance. Some news is obviously not intended to entertain. Most is chosen because a large majority of mature individuals want that information, and because it concerns their welfare.

To a degree unique, Americans can know, via their daily newspapers, what is transpiring all over the earth. For general, rounded, true education, a daily newspaper is without equal.

JUSTICE MINTON

Retiring Associated Justice Sherman Minton of the Supreme Court deserves the commendation of his countrymen for his conduct on the high tribunal over his seven-year service.

Justice Minton's performance on the bench was a model of judicial deportment, save for one recent small slip when he uttered a political opinion. His record was all the more notable for the fact that as a Democratic senator from Indiana during the 1930's, Minton had been an extreme partisan.

Oddly, as the years passed, he came to be associated more with the conservative wing of the court than with the liberals he espoused as a politician. This evident shift of outlook strongly suggested that Minton possessed the kind of mental flexibility the Supreme Court most needs.

It was characteristic of his high regard for the court that he chose to retire because he felt ill health would hamper his work. The decision to quit was very hard. "I love it. I hate to go." Those were Minton's words.

Measuring his performance and devotion to duty, Americans may well feel a similar regret that he must step down.

A large number of artistic-minded citizens are hoping that the Jaycee Music Committee will be successful in its efforts to arouse sufficient support to assure the continuance of the Warren Concert Series, operating the past nine years. Everyone interested is invited to an open meeting at the Jaycee meeting room in the YMCA next Monday evening at eight o'clock.

The passing of Dr. Samuel King at his home, 18 Crescent Park, Sunday afternoon, at the ripe old age of 91 years, removes one of the oldest and best known residents of the South Side area. His widow has the sympathy of a wide circle of friends.

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?—John 5:47.

The majesty of the Scriptures strikes me with admiration, as the purity of the gospel has its influence on my heart.—Rousseau.

Un-American Activity

Here and There

Forty years ago when the Hickory street bridge was under construction it provided interesting pastime for scores of "sidewalk superintendents" who held forth on the river banks on both sides of the stream. It was September 17, 1917, when The Evening Mirror carried this informative item in the "Daily Reflections" column: "More than a few residents of the city have wondered what the stovetops are for which are seen to project from the concrete piers of the new bridge. Some have even gone so far as to believe that a stove was placed in the bottom of the piers to dry the concrete and the pipe was left; but, nope, another guess is coming. The pipes are for drainage purposes. They have an outlet close to the water line in the side of the piers and run up through center of the concrete, with the upper ends projecting from between the spans. When the filling is placed in the arches the concrete between the spans will be so rounded as to drain to these pipes, which will be cut off close to the concrete and loose cobbles placed over them to keep them from filling up. They will carry off any water which may seep through the surface of the roadway and thus prevent it from remaining in the bridge and making a soft spot in the filling."

In the same issue of the paper is an article that reminds us of the old days when "class rushes" were the custom at the Warren High School. One is described under an article headed "Take Down Their Pennant," which says: "Sometime during last night several members of the senior class of the high school suspended their class pennant from the electric light wire over the street in front of the high school. This morning when the juniors began arriving at the school it loomed up like a light-house in the fog. It made them sore! They decided forthwith that it should come down, and several members were planning to forego whatever education might be in store for them in the forenoon periods and spend their time taking down the flag of the upper classmen. They were relieved of the task, however, since Professor Pressel took matters in hand and after giving the seniors a curtain lecture for disregarding the rules, he ordered them to take down their flag. It is said some of the seniors felt so small they endeavored to hide in their ink wells. They must have chosen the red ink side for when they went out to comply with the principal's instructions their faces were as red as fire. In a class rush a couple years ago which originated in a manner similar to the one last night's action would have kindled, a student died from injuries and a rule was made that no more class flags should fly from the wires in front of the high school building. It was the violation of that rule that brought forth the reprimand from the faculty this morning."

And finally here's one that is certain to excite interest on the part of present-day readers: "On the south side where the James-town Cut Stone Company has set up a temporary plant and are engaged in preparing the stone for the residence now in course of construction for H. A. Logan, scenes of the greatest activity are presented. The force of stone cutters are busy in an effort to have their part of the work completed as fast as the stones are required for the building. Between three and four carloads of stone will be required, and all of it must be cut, curved and fitted. Indiana limestone is being used for the larger part of the work, but Ohio stone of a bluish tint also will be used in the trimmings of the building."

P. S.—It was September 18, 1917, that the barbers of Warren announced they were boosting the price of hair cuts to 35 cents; an increase of ten cents over the prevailing price!

First Lady's Kindness to Ailing Youth Discloses Other Missions of Mercy

BY DOUGLAS LARSEN AND KENNETH O. GILMORE, NEA Staff Correspondents

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — When Mrs. Eisenhower recently made arrangements for an 18-month-old boy to be brought to the National Institute of Health from South Carolina, it wasn't the first time the White House has helped in a mission of mercy.

In the last year, several cases that have come to the attention of Ike or Mamie have been referred to NIH.

It's generally Maj. Gen. Howard McC. Snyder, the President's physician, who carries the ball. He checks with NIH to see if they can undertake a case. The federal hospital only takes persons for research purposes.

If NIH decides to admit a patient, their specialists check with the local doctor.

THEY HARDLY GIVE an honest man a chance these days. New French Ambassador Herve Alphand discovered on arriving in Washington the other day he was to be host at a big embassy party in less than a week.

It's a large reception for 22 visiting members of the French Parliament. And it's the first occasion sharp-eyed embassy party-goers will have a chance to see Alphand in action as ambassador.

Those who know him figure he'll do all right, though. He's a terrific social mixer, good story teller and far from a stuffed shirt.

THERE'S NO LIMIT to what they'll do these days to drum up a little international good will, even if it means collecting bottles of water from all over the globe.

That's the zany gimmick officials of the President's Cup Regatta have come up with this year.

The night before the boat races there's to be a big ball, and on this occasion specimens of water —about 40 of them—from lakes, rivers and seas all over the world will be poured into a fountain.

It's supposed to symbolize international good will, or something like that.

THEY HAVE also named a Queen of the President's Cup Regatta. She's Miss Joan Drew, daughter of American Ambassador to Bolivia, Gerald Drew.

The announcement was a swell excuse for a party featuring shrimp, cream puffs filled with cheese dip, anchovies, smoked salmon and caviar—with drinks, of course.

Nobody said much about boats, but they did let it out that Chief of Naval Operations Adm. Arleigh Burke will crown the queen.

SQUELCH of the week:

One thing that drives a new-corned bats in this town is that worn-out conversation piece, "How do you like Washington?"

Friend of ours recently arrived from the Philippines got that old line thrown at him a dozen times the other day at an embassy party.

The thirteenth time he replied with a dead pan: "I think Washington was a fine president."

AT AN EMBASSY eat-and-drink affair other evening a young American gal timidly asked the bartender for a glass of ginger ale with ice.

Standing nearby were several members of the Russian embassy. With great guffaws and kidding they tried to persuade her that it was silly not to have something alcoholic in her drink.

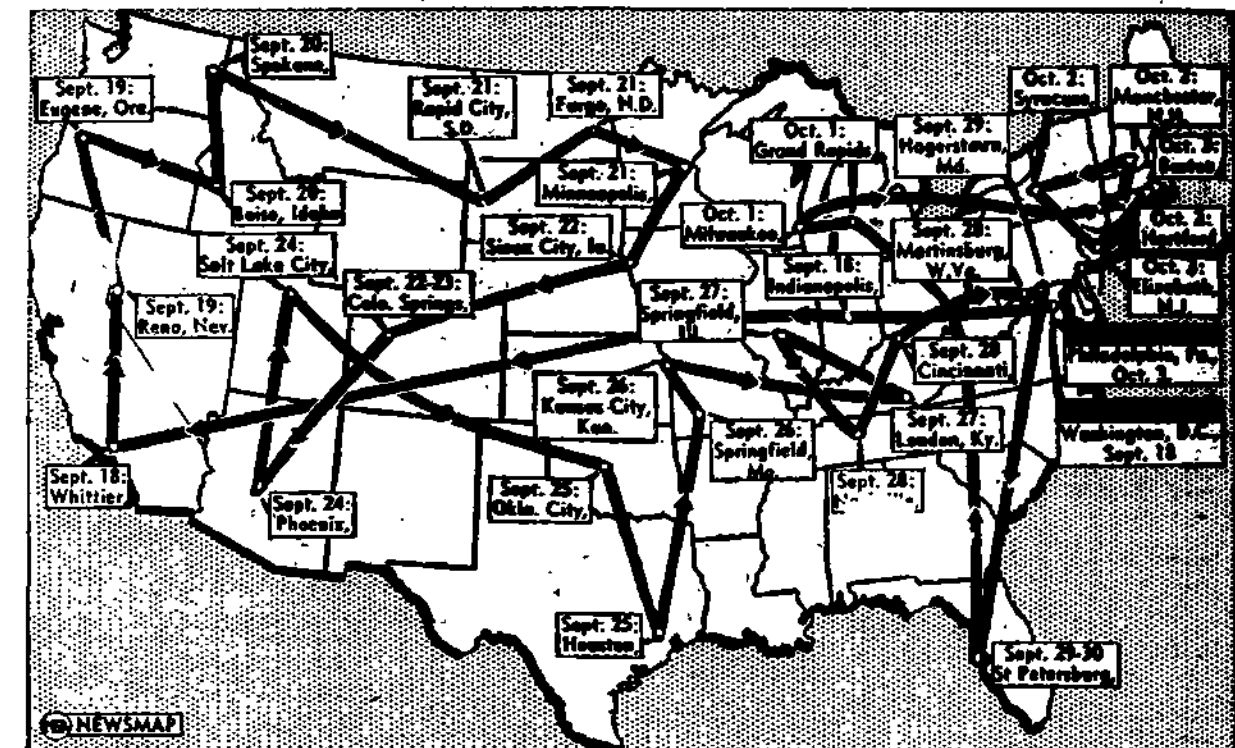

You could have matched their faces with the red carpet when Russian Ambassador Georgi Zaroubin marched up to the bar and demanded:

"Ginger ale on the rocks."

NIXON MAPS RECORD TOUR—Newsmap shows itinerary of the most intensive speech-making swing by any campaigner in American history, mapped out for Vice President Richard M. Nixon. From Washington, the unprecedented aerial tour will cover 32 states in 16 days, with only 14 of them "working" days. Purpose of the trip is to feel out the weak and strong spots so Nixon will know what to concentrate on in what he called "the last crucial four weeks."

DON'T DUCK THE ISSUES—VOTE—Take a gander at what the Claremont, N.H. League of Women Voters is doing to get out the vote this fall. Mrs. Frederick Kaufman, chairman, holds a "use your right to vote" sign to emphasize lesson pointed up by the ducky exhibition at her left.

Warren Agent Attends Meeting in Columbus

John Powley of 301 Pennsylvania avenue, west, Warren, has been elected to a 14-man committee chosen from among 3,800 Nationwide Insurance agents to attend conferences this week with company executives. The idea-exchange sessions will be held Tuesday and Wednesday (Sept. 18 and 19) at Nationwide's home office in Columbus, Ohio.

Mr. Powley was elected from the 276 agents in Nationwide's Western Pennsylvania Region, with headquarters in Butler. The committee—known as the Agents' Company Advisory Council—will develop the discussion agenda. Topics for discussion will be introduced by agents as well as management representatives. Executives present will include Murray D. Lincoln, president of Nationwide, who will attend a dinner meeting Tuesday evening and take part in an open discussion session.

VESTED INTEREST—Martin Jorgensen models a formal vest made of gold which is valued at $100,000 as Karin Johnson helps him into another expensive bit of finery—a $1,000 silk and-gold dinner jacket. The vest plays no political favor; in design—its pattern features alternate squares depicting a donkey and an elephant. The eye-catching items were on display at an annual convention of manufacturers of men's formal wear in New York City.

SANFORD

Sanford—Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Brown enjoyed a visit with the J. A. Hill family at Diamond, O., and, with them, went to visit the Best Hills at Midland, Mich. A highlight of their trip was an extended outing to St. Ignace and by boat to Mackinac Island, a historic and interesting place. Not the least interesting was their mode of travel, no autos being allowed and sight-seeing being done by horses and surrey, bicycle chair, or on foot. Mrs. Hill and daughter, Glenys, returned with the Browns and Mr. Hill and son, Michael, came to spend the weekend.

Undertakers Restate Stand on Ambulance Service Suspension In Open Letter to Newspaper

Letter to the Editor: An open letter concerning ambulance service for Warren and Warren County.

Notice was given to the Warren General Hospital, the Warren County Medical Association and the Warren Borough Council, that it was our intention to discontinue ambulance service on August 1, 1956 following which time we have given two extensions of this service. The last extension will expire at 12 o'clock midnight DST September 30, 1956.

We, the Funeral Directors of Warren, have always felt a very keen interest in the safety of the thousands of families in Warren and Warren County over a period of many years, as evidenced by the type of ambulance service we have tried to give.

The ambulance units in Warren are in A-1 condition with low mileage and may be purchased by the Warren General Hospital or Warren Borough at a reasonable price. Is this opportunity to be overlooked and allow these units to be sold outside of Warren? All of the funeral firms in Warren have had offers for the purchase of these vehicles from outside interests. Such units are often needed many times in different sections of Warren and Warren County at the same time, with drivers and help to render the service Warren rightly needs. With the various industries, homes and highways in this area from which the sick and injured must be taken to Warren General Hospital as well as hospitals in Erie, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Buffalo, etc. active operation of these ambulances is a vital need. What hardships the people of our community and Warren County will experience without ambulance service is easy to see. No other vehicle can ever take their place.

High cost of operation to the funeral firms has been far greater than the public realize, in connection with the operation of our funeral home on a 24-hour basis.

The last meeting which we were asked to attend was in July, but there have been several meetings since that time apparently to no avail. The people of Warren have been notified of these meetings the same way as we have—by the newspaper and radio. We believe that the people of Warren and Warren County should write to the newspaper, and to the radio station, and to state their wishes concerning the best ambulance available for YOU the people of Warren and Warren County.

It has been contended that the Funeral Directors of Warren have never actually given written notice of their intention to discontinue this service. Such notice WAS given in writing following a meeting held May 22, 1956, and the Funeral Directors have since that time attended nine meetings during which time there was discussion relative to the discontinuance of this service, but without results to this date.

Now let it be known that the following statement has been given to the chairman of the special ambulance committee of Warren Borough Council on September 17, 1956:

To Whom It May Concern: At a meeting held at 10:30 a. m. on September 17, 1956 at Warren, Pennsylvania it was agreed by the four funeral firms of Warren that the ambulance service operated by the said firm will be definitely discontinued at 12 o'clock midnight DST, on September 30, 1956, and it was further agreed that no further extension of this service will be granted by the said firms after this date. Dated at Warren, Pa., September 17, 1956. (Signed) Leo D. Gibson, Lutz-VerMilyea, J. A. V. W. F. Peterson, R. N. Templeton.

Calvary Baptist Church Starts Seminar Classes

The Calvary Baptist Seminar got off to a fine start Sunday evening, with nearly 100 members and friends in attendance for the four well-planned classes.

Classes for teacher-training for adults were taught by Rev. G. Forest Sparks, of First Baptist church, and Rev. Ernest A. Hook, Pennsylvania Avenue Baptist minister, Pastor Robert Hails, of Jamestown. Chandler Street church, taught a class for young people, and Pastor Howard Cartwright, Staibrick, instructed the juniors and intermediates.

Following the hour-long class period, 5:00 to 6:00, a light lunch was served by ladies of the church.

At 6:30, Emma Moore conducted a young people's pre-service prayer period, and, at 7:00, the Evening Gospel Hour in the sanctuary included a songspiration, gospel message, and Moody Film. Classes and services will continue along these lines for the remaining nine weeks of this first annual Seminar to be held in the local church.

Out of town guests at Sunday services were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ellington, Sturgeon, Pa., daughter and son-in-law of Mrs. Dorothy Ahlgren, Conewango avenue, Mrs. H. A. Backstrom, Pittsburgh, mother of H. A. Backstrom, Jr., Hill street; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Nelson, Erie; Mrs. Agnes Williamson, Virginia.

Special music for the morning service was a duet by Mrs. Backstrom and Mrs. Clarence Swanson.

Four women of the church attended the first annual Middle East Baptist Conference Women's Retreat at Burton, O., over the weekend. Mrs. Elsie Hollabaugh, Mrs. Anna Hoffmann, Janet Ahlgren, and Florence Danielson. Activities being planned in connection with Calvary Sunday School are Promotion Day on September 30; Rally Day October 7; National Bible School Week, September 30-October 7; and a six-week Attendance Contest, October 14-November 18.

Look here, old man—is your wife firmly in the driver's seat?

With women becoming smarter every day, you have to be on your toes to keep from taking a rear seat in family affairs. Especially in matters of the pocketbook. Suppose, for example, you didn't know the answers to the following questions—and your wife did. You might find yourself a displaced person quicker than you could say New York Stock Exchange. Ready?

Can I work at my job and get income from other businesses at the same time?

This is exactly what millions of smart fellows do (women, too). They invest their extra money in common stock to get dividends. Should you? Depends upon your family finances—and any broker in a Member Firm of the New York Stock Exchange will be glad to help you decide. Fact is, though, two out of three stockholders have incomes under $7,500 a year.

What do I own when I own common stock?

You own a part of the company whose stock you bought. As an owner you share in the company's profits, from which cash dividends are paid. If business is good and the company grows, the value of your investment usually grows. It's a way many people keep pace, with rising prices.

Does a stock always pay a dividend?

There is a risk in the ownership of any kind of property and stocks are no exception. Dividends are usually paid from current profits and not every company always makes a profit. Last year nine out of ten stocks on the New York Stock Exchange paid dividends and more than 300 have paid dividends every year from 25 to 108 consecutive years.

Sounds wonderful. How do I start?

First make sure you've provided for family emergencies—because money you invest in stock should be money over and above essentials. Then you look into what kind of stock you want to buy. Or maybe you should buy bonds instead. Get the advice of any Member Firm of the New York Stock Exchange. They'll help you to buy or sell and to get the facts you need. (The Exchange itself doesn't buy or sell—it's the nation's market-place for securities.)

Where can I find the facts?

Start with our wonderfully informative little booklet called "DIVIDENDS OVER THE YEARS—a basic guide for common stock investment." It gives the records of more than 300 stocks on the New York Stock Exchange that have paid dividends every year from 25 to 108 years, showing: Stocks that have paid progressively higher dividends over the past 10 years. Stock with yields of 5% to 6% at recent prices. Stocks most favored by financial institutions plus much more, including facts about the convenient Monthly Investment Plan. MR. AND MRS. G. H. LITTLEFIELD

White gladioli, mums and candelabra decorated the palm-banked altar of Emanuel Evangelical and Reformed church for the September 8 wedding of Beverly Jean Taft, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Taft of 51 Locust street, and George Harold Littlefield, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Eugene Littlefield, Frewsburg RD 1.

The double ring ceremony was performed by candlelight at 2:30 p. m. by the Rev. John A. Borger. A half-hour of traditional wedding music was provided by Eleanor Swanson at the organ and the vocalist, Mrs. Hazel Merenick, who sang "I Love Thee", "Wedding Benediction" and during the ceremony, "A Wedding Prayer".

pouring were Mrs. Janet Swick and Elaine Middaugh; at the punch bowl, Mrs. Jean Gagliano; in charge of the guest book, Marianne Hoover.

Guests were from Warren, North Warren, Frewsburg, Jamestown, Falconer, Ohio, Washington, D. C., Michigan, Lakewood, Rochester and Russell.

For a New England wedding trip, the bride chose a navy and white ensemble and her bridal orchid. Returning, the newlyweds are at home in Frewsburg RD 1.

Presently employed in the office of Sylvania Electric Products, Inc., the bride was graduated from Warren High in 1953 and attended Heidelberg College one year. Mr. Littlefield, Frewsburg High graduate, served two years with the Marines, and is engaged in farming.

Parties for the bride-elect were given by the Ivory Baptist church, with Mrs. Harold Littlefield, Mrs. Karl Nelson and Sylvia Nelson the hostesses; Mrs. Philip Taft; Sylvania employees, with Elaine Middaugh hostesses; Mrs. Frances Swanson and Mrs. Margaret Carlson; Kay Hutchens and Barbara Bleech; church choir and Sunday school officers with Mrs. Hazel Merenick the hostess. The rehearsal dinner was given by the bridegroom's parents.

STARBUCK UNIT OFF TO GOOD START

Members of Starbuck PTA were happy to meet and make new friends at their first meeting of the season and explain that, if a North Warren parent holds a PTA membership in his school, he will be considered a member of Starbuck Unit and it is hoped many more will attend next month.

Mr. Honhart will be the October speaker, his topic being "The History of Rafting", and any member who has an older boy who would like to attend may bring him along.

It was announced at the opening meeting the cafeteria will open the first week in November. It is operated by one cook and volunteer help of a mother each day, and North Warren mothers are invited to participate. North Warren parents have requested that a list be made and sent to them of Starbuck operations, so they will be able to cooperate, and a committee was appointed to handle this task during the month.

Films and slides of California, Florida, Havana, and other places, along with food pictures, were enjoyed. The meeting was followed by a visitation period, with lunch served by Mrs. Allan Chase, Mrs. Theron Esterbrook, Mrs. Harry Kershaw and Mrs. Gloria Brown.

ENJOY TUREEN

About 20 members of the May R. Stone Group of Presbyterian church were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Offerle for their September meeting, when a delicious tureen dinner was served by Mrs. William H. Cannon, president, Mrs. Ralph E. Sires, and the hostess. After dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Offerle gave the group an unusual treat in showing on the screen many beautiful colored pictures, which they had taken in various parts of the country.

ALTAR SOCIETY

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little PASTESTH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Hold false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get PASTESTH at any drug counter.

EMILY J. RISTAU

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emily Ristau, Clarendon RD 1, and member of this year's Warren High School Class, has left for Jamestown to enter the fall training class at WCA Hospital School of Nursing.

Emily has been an active figure during high school days, singing in Third Choir as a junior and in the Girls' Chorus during her senior year. She was a member of the Future Homemakers of America Chapter, German and Latin clubs, Girls' Athletic Association, Pen and Pencil Fushers' Club; and had roles in both the senior play and Evening of Plays. As a senior, she was also on both the assembly and radio program committees.

Youngsville Church Groups Are Active

Youngsville—WSWS members of the EUB church held their September meeting at the home of Mrs. Dallas Haight, the new study for the year started by Mrs. Mayola Sanford; scripture reading given by Mrs. Archie Jackson; prayers offered by Mrs. Edith Young and Mrs. Haight; and meditation from the Spiritual Life Manual given by Mrs. Laura Thompson. Routine business was transacted and the 22 members present brought a nice assortment of bath towels to be sent to a mission hospital in New Mexico.

The official board of the Methodist church held its monthly meeting in the church last evening. Blue Circle members were entertained by Mrs. Edna Woods, assisted by Mrs. Gwen Mariner. Devotions were conducted by President Aline Henton, who also read a poem, "Peace in the World". Routine business was conducted and the coming bazaar was discussed. There were 14 persons present.

Eleven Willing Workers and their guests were entertained Thursday by the Rev. and Mrs. C. C. Ross at Blooming Valley. After lunch, Mrs. George Fish conducted the regular business meeting.

MOTHERS' CLUB

The first meeting of Baptist Mothers' Club was held at the church in the form of a tureen dinner, with 20 members and their guests present. After a short business meeting, a "get-acquainted" program was presented with games planned by Jeanette Farrell and Bea Jarvis.

Officers for the ensuing year are as follows: President, Lucille Bainbridge; vice president, Fay Weirich; secretary, Lois Scott; treasurer, Doris Lundberg; and the following chairmen: devotional, Della Meyers; missionary, Phyllis Swanson; program, Bea Jarvis; hostess, Jeanne Maier; membership, Phyllis Rudolph.

Dr. John Thompson will be the speaker at the next meeting to be held Thursday, October 11.

YWCA Sponsoring Special Project

A special project for young adults of voting age, a "Do-It-Yourself" course in the mechanics of politics, will get under way September 26, 1956 at YWCA, 7:30, Miss MayBelle Bairstow, executive director of the Warren YWCA announced yesterday.

The local YW is sponsoring the course as a part of a nationwide guide to good citizenship to arouse the interest of young voters and to help them learn their way around in the political organization of the community. Launched this month in the YWCA's throughout the U. S. the course is open to the community as well as YW members.

The course, consisting of a series of five weekly sessions conducted by nonpartisan, civic leaders, will enable young people to learn how the community is organized politically, from the precinct-level up. It will also devote time to studying the jobs and methods of organization in both campaign and non-election years.

"We think young people need more help in tying into the political fabric of today in order to use their votes wisely," Miss Bairstow said. "They want to be better informed and to be able to trace the connection between their votes and high-level political decisions. This project will help them to do this and to work more effectively in the party of their choice," she said, stressing the fact that the project is strictly nonpartisan and conducted in the interest of alert and constructive citizenship.

The first session of the course, beginning September 26, will be led by Miss Emma Christian.

Other leaders on successive weeks will be Mr. Ralph Sires and Mr. Thomas Conway with other leaders to be announced at a later date. This course will come under five main headings: Orientation and basic elements in politics; working at the grass-roots; political housekeeping; seeing democ-

Eastern Star Chapter Honors Worthy Matron

Youngsville—Mrs. Pauline Hal-fast, worthy matron of the local chapter, Order of Eastern Star, was honored recently by a dinner party tendered by her officers.

The setting was the spacious lawn at the home of Mrs. Leila Craft, beautiful with the season's flowers and colorful with strings of Japanese lanterns. A line of Japanese figurines was lined down the middle of the long table, which was centered with an arrange-ment of fall flowers hung with miniature Japanese lanterns. In-dividual favors were miniature Japanese hats.

A social time of games, with prizes, followed dinner, after which the worthy matron was pre-sented with a set of five serving pieces of Fostoria glassware. In-keeping with the theme of the lovely party, the gift was wrapped as a Japanese parcel.

On Friday evening, OES Dis-trict 1-B held a dinner-meeting at Fort LeBoeuf High School at Wa-terford to honor the worthy grand matron, Mrs. Edith E. Care of Norristown, and other grand of-ficers. All Youngsville officers took part in the meeting.

Table decorations for the color-ful scene were horns of plenty filled with fall flowers, with min-ature horns holding candy corn at individual places.

ORCHESTRA SUPPER

A reminder is issued to all War-ren Civic Orchestra members, and interested newcomers, with their wives and husbands, to enjoy a tureen picnic at the DeFrees farm on Miller Hill road at 6:30 p. m. The affair is being arranged by their children and all relatives and friends are cordially invited to call between the hours of two and nine.

WOMEN OF THE MOOSE

At the regular meeting of War-ren Chapter 693, Women of the Moose, plans were made to have a fall gathering at the summer home of Grace Heasley, Warren-Kinzua road, on Wednesday. Members will be welcome in the afternoon and a tureen dinner will be served at 6:00 p. m., each to bring a tureen and her own table service. Those not at the meeting and wishing to attend are asked to call Mrs. Heasley, 6593, or Chrissie Guar-dello 554-J, and transportation will be provided.

During the regular session, Stella Cerra, Shirley Littlefield, Angelina Rankin and Isabella Uber were accepted into chapter membership. The publicity chair-man and her committee had their Chapter Night, with a social time and prizes awarded to Laeta Min-nick and France Saeli. Refresh-ments were served to conclude the pleasant evening.

LT. AND MRS. ALLAN J. GIBSON

A beautiful wedding in the 12th century abbey in Dunfermline, Scotland, on September 5, united in marriage Doreen Susan Land-say, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Lindsay of Crossford Fife, Scotland, and 1st. Lt. Allen J. Gibson, USAF, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen M. Gibson of Sheffield.

The single ring ceremony was performed at 1:30 p. m. by the Rev. Robert Dollar, altar decora-tions featuring white and blue gladioli and hydrangeas. For tra-ditional wedding music, Mr. Fum-ler was at the organ and Mrs. Helena Hart was the soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the attractive bride was gowned in white gupure lace over blue ny-lon, with a specially designed hat of lace which matched her gown, and carried a dainty bouquet of lilies-of-the-valley and forget-me-nots.

Wearing Swiss lace gowns were her attendants, her sister, Maria Lindsay, Margaret Anderson and Elizabeth Clelland.

Completing the bridal party were Capt. William E. Baker, USAF, Lt. Sal T. Hardy, USAF, and William Wallington, all of London.

Mrs. Lindsay chose a beige col-ored maroon ensemble and Mrs. Gibson was in aqua satin.

The blue and white theme was repeated in floral appointments for the reception for 65 guests which followed at four in the afternoon at Woodside Inn, Aberdour. Guests included Lt. Gibson's father, As-semblyman Gibson, and Mrs. Gib-son, of Sheffield.

Later the couple left for a honey-moon in Switzerland. The bride is a graduate of Glasgow Western Hospital and is a BEA Airline hos-tesse. Lt. Gibson, alumnus of Penn-sylvania State University, is with the Air Force.

Welcome for Minister Given by Salem Church

Ladies' Aid of Salem EUB church held a reception in honor of their minister and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. Francis Fehlman, and family. Devotions and program were in charge of Mrs. Paul Schwab, and several song-choruses were led by Mrs. Carl Jones.

The small children sang a "Wel-come" to the Fehlmans; Mrs. Hu-ber gave a poem, "Bear Ye One Another's Burdens"; Barbara Bald-ensperger played a piano solo; Paul Ristau gave a speech, and a welcoming poem, "My Minister", was given by Mrs. Paul Schwab. Rev. and Mrs. Fehlman responded, stating they were glad to serve another year. Ernest Huber led in the closing prayer.

A social hour followed, with Mrs. Ivan Rydholm in charge of refreshments, assisted by Mrs. F. Rosentrater, Mrs. L. Sidon, Mrs. A. Larson and Mrs. E. Huber. The

Mature Beauty Without Dieting

Lots of mature women really don't want to lose weight. This attitude is fine if the doctor approves and one pays scrupulous attention to grooming details. Picking a becoming hemline is important. Dresses that aren't right should be adjusted with the aid of a hem-marker (left). A sturdy foundation (top cen-ter).

ter) should be washed frequently, without rubbing, to keep it in good shape. Aching feet, which often change lines in the face, can be eased with a footbath in lukewarm suds (bottom center). Size 8 or 33, all details should be checked before going out (right). Appropriateness, cleanliness and a smile are important.

THERE are many Junoesque women who take a peek at the latest diet and feel not a pang. They've added their ol-lotted 10 pounds every 10 years and now that they feel they've reached the optimum age for en-joying life, they have not a re-gret about being a fine figure of a woman. They like it, their doc-tors approve and so do their hus-bands. Why starve?

A splendid, attractive woman has every right to take pleasure in her appearance. And if she watches these few pointers, she can do it, even if she is substan-tial in size.

BY ALICIA HART, NEA Beauty Editor
A well-fitted foundation is a must. A good-sized mature wom-an ought to have several. One to wash, one to wear and one to spare. And since a well-fitted all-in-one is costly of time and money to buy, it deserves loving care. A good pretreating of soiled spots with a brush and thick suds comes first. Then washing in fresh suds (no wring-ing or rubbing), rinsing, rolling in a towel and drying away from heat.

Careful attention to detail is mandatory for a big woman. A sagging hemline, an ill-fitted dress, a collar poorly attached, turns a potential Juno into a sack of meal. Hemlines should be picked to flatter. Every new dress should be fitted over the proper foundation and the hem adjusted correctly. Old dresses beginning to sag should be cor-rected. Dark colors, the favorite of large women, call for sparkling accessories. Make the white gloves really white, the new col-lor set correctly and minus pow-der smears. White or gray hair is another accessory that should sparkle in contrast to dark outfits. A sham-poo should continue until the hair squeaks. A brightening rinse may be added, if one desires.

A big woman puts a load on her feet every step she takes. And feet that hurt can cause other aches, plus tired lines in a handsome face. Pick shoes with utmost care and baby the feet. A day that's seemed overlong can be finished off with a foot soak in lukewarm suds. Wiggling and stretching can stop feet from throbbing. A bath pillow on the bottom of the tub is for extra comfort.

Community Flower Show At Lander Is Successful

Sugar Grove—The initial Com-munity Flower Show, sponsored by Hill and Dale Garden Club at the First Presbyterian church, proved a most successful project. Many in the community made entries, also Garden Club members from Tidouite and Youngsville, with more than 300 entries made by 55 exhibitors.

Judges were Mrs. A. R. Wheeler, West Hickory; Mrs. D. H. Hag-gerty, Mrs. Arthur Agnew and Mrs. George Hall, Jamestown.

Many visitors included persons from Tidouite, Youngsville, Sunnyside, Corry, Jamestown, Lake-wood, Warren, Lander, Russell and Chandlers Valley.

Commercial exhibits were shown by Mrs. Robert Bates, Sunnyside, who had gladiolus; Mrs. Harold Ayling of Bear Lake, gladioli.

Mrs. Donald Barrett arranged the African Violet display; other display chairmen were Mrs. Kath-erine Carr, house plants; Mrs. Del-mar Mickelson, miniatures.

Dorothy Fisher furnished piano music for the afternoon and evening; Mrs. Ralph Abbott, Mrs. C. L. Eckdahl, and Flossie Brough-ton were the committee for tea; Mrs. Paul Lindell was in charge of the plant sale.

Mrs. H. A. Ludwick, club presi-dent, and her committees appre-ciate the finesupport given the project and are hoping to make it a yearly event.

Because of the unexpected size of the show, it will be impossible to publish an entire list of prize winners.

When Relative Moves in Don't Alter Your Customs

SHOULD a couple who are used to serving drinks to their friends in their own home feel they can no longer continue to serve a before-dinner drink when a parent who objects to drinking moves in with them?

That is the question that confronts one wife who writes:

"My husband's mother is going to make her home with us. I am glad to have her but I am worried about one thing.

"My mother-in-law is very intolerant about drinking. My husband and I are used to serving a drink or two when we have dinner guests or when friends stop in for an evening. Do you think it is necessary that we stop this custom out of respect for my husband's mother?"

"None of our friends drinks so excess but they are used to being offered a drink when they are entertained and I am afraid that things will suddenly seem very stiff and formal at our house if we do not feel free to ask, 'Would you like a drink?'"

SHE SHOULD FEEL MORE AT HOME
THINGS are likely to be even more constrained between you and your mother-in-law if you start trying to lead your life and run your own home according to her ideas instead of your own.

If you are in the habit of serving drinks why not continue to do so? Your mother-in-law may not approve but you can be pretty sure that when she was your age and the head of her own house she did the things that were customary among her friends. If she is going to make her home with you she should be willing to accept your standards of conduct and your way of doing things. Don't make an issue of your custom of serving drinks at home by apologizing for it or trying to defend it. Just go on as you always have, remembering that you are the mistress in your own home, that you are old enough to make your own decisions and that if you are making your mother-in-law a welcome member of the family she should be willing to accept your way of life without criticism.

SOCIETY

Republican Women's Council Has an Outstanding Speaker for September

The September meeting of Warren County Council of Republican Women was held at the YWCA Activities Building with a large number of council members in attendance. President Mina Rieder conducted the business meeting.

Mrs. Marion Davis, membership chairman, reported the total at present is 2,341. A nominating committee composed of Mrs. Ralph Sires, chairman, Mrs. Theresa Keim, and Miss Violet Lila was appointed.

Announcement was made of the state convention of the Pennsylvania Council of Republican Women, to be held November 29th and 30th at Pittsburgh. Miss Rieder and Mrs. Davis were elected as delegates, with Mrs. Moss Connelly and Miss Sunny Lucia as alternates.

Samuel F. Bonavita, local attorney and prominent figure in Young Republican activities throughout Pennsylvania, introduced the speaker of the evening, James F. Malone, of Pittsburgh, former district attorney of Allegheny county, giving a brief resume of Mr. Malone's background, his political activities, and many achievements.

In addressing Council, Mr. Malone spoke on politics in general, observing that "in general, people no longer vote along party lines, but for personalities. More demand is being made for candidates who have the ability to hold office capably, and less importance is being placed on the fact they may have been long-term party devotees or have given years of service to the party." He touched on the apathy and lethargy of voters, and stressed the value of one vote, giving instances to illustrate how just one vote has been known to sway an election.

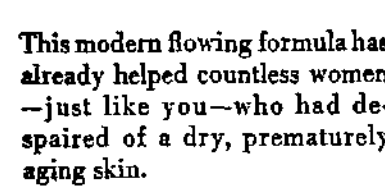

Mr. Malone also mentioned the various pre-election polls and advised his audience not to rely too strongly on the trends as indicated by these polls, stating that "oral votes taken for or against a candidate are not those counted after the election!"

A forthright and forceful speaker, Mr. Malone's seriousness and honest manner of delivery were immediately felt by the audience, whose attention he claimed from the very first. Those privileged to hear him were unanimous in feeling he was one of the best speakers ever to appear before the Council.

A social hour followed the meeting, with delicious refreshments served from an attractively-appointed table. Miss Irene Richwalsky was chairman of the social hour, with the following members from Sheffield assisting her: Mrs. Robert Jones, Mrs. William Sleasman, Mrs. Russell Andrews, Mrs. Sanford Secor, Mrs. Richard McGuire, Mrs. Jack Hoffman, Mrs. Arthur Cummings, Mrs. William Dalton, Mrs. C. W. Whitaker, Mrs. Eugene Leseman, and Miss Mary Cashmere.

The next meeting of Council will be held Thursday, October 11th, at the activities building, when election of officers will be held, and another fine speaker will be presented.

Shhh! Your skin is showing - your age!

You need Jacqueline Cochran's FLOWING VELVET

This modern flowing formula has already helped countless women - just like you - who had despaired of a dry, prematurely aging skin.

Jacqueline Cochran has found a new answer to the dry-skin problem and its cause, dehydration of the sub-surface tissues. She discovered Hydrolin, a new ingredient that transfers beneficial moisture into the deep tissues of the skin. Thanks to exclusive Hydrolin... and other rich components, only Flowing Velvet works these three ways:

1. It furnishes moisture that actually sinks into your skin.
2. It provides necessary oils for essential lubrication.
3. It maintains the normal balance of oils and moisture.

One touch mirrors the beautiful change! Tiny lines smooth out, years seem to melt away! To speed results, use Flowing Velvet day and night. It's hormone-free, greaseless, won't smear your make-up or smudge your pillow.

See for yourself. Make Flowing Velvet your 24-hour beauty care... and see how much younger and lovelier you can look. Why not start today!

A. T. Schindlers Have Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Schindler, 116 Onondaga avenue, are receiving the best wishes of family and friends today on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary. Married September 18, 1906, by the Rev. Sikes in Titusville, the Schindlers have long been residents here and Mr. Schindler is widely known as proprietor of the Schindler Bindery in Times-Square.

The celebrants were honored Sunday with an anniversary dinner given by their family, Claude Schindler, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schindler, and their only grandchild, Mary Lynn Schindler, of Warren.

Guests included Mrs. Charles Hall, twin sister of Mr. Schindler and her daughter, Aurelia Hall, from Roselle, N. J.; another sister, Mrs. Fred Portner, with Mrs. John Hendershot, Williamsport; Mr. and Mrs. John Hall and children, James, John and William, Cincinnati, O.; Dr. and Mrs. Willard Trushel, Shingletown; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wuerzler, Lakewood; Mrs. Margaret Koonz, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Malstrom, Titusville; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schindler, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schindler, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schindler, Sunbury, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schindler, Middletown, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. George Juline, Miss Lydia Wuerzler, Warren.

NEW SIGAFOOS CLASS FOR AMATEUR PAINTERS

All persons interested in amateur painting are reminded Richard Sigafos is returning to Warren Friday, September 21, to start a new series of lessons in oil painting.

The class will assemble at Warren Public Library at one o'clock Friday afternoon and from there will proceed to the locale selected for landscape work. Accepting registrations are Mrs. Warren Stone, 2319, or Mrs. Joseph De-Frees, 2192.

LUTHERAN NOTES

Wednesday—2:30, Saron Ladies Aid will meet in the church.

Thursday—8:00, Saron Bible Class will meet in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert York, with Mrs. Paul Dinny as co-hostess.

Announcement has been received of the annual Stewardship Seminar of the Warren District, New York Conference, to be held at the Lutheran Home for the Aged in Jamestown from 3:30 to 9:30 p. m. Sunday, September 23.

MARCONI WINNERS

Playing against a maximum of 84 and average of 42, Mrs. M. A. Konreich and James R. Valone were high pair with 51½ in last night's weekly Marconi Bridge Club tournament. In second place were Dr. R. H. Israel and son, John, with 48½; third, Mrs. David Cropp and Mrs. Carl Hulbert, 44½; fourth, Mr. and Mrs. J. Howell, 43½.

Gathered From The Party Line

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Betts, 300 Buchanan street, are home after a delightful trip, made mostly by air, which took them through the Canadian Rockies, to Vancouver and Victoria, Seattle, a number of California cities, and back through Kansas City. Married 40 years ago on September 28, the jaunt was in the nature of an advance anniversary celebration.

Mrs. Anna Erickson and son, Robert, Pennsylvania avenue, west, have left for a visit with their daughter and sister, Mrs. Richard Maxwell, and family in Louisville, Ky.

John H. Timmis, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Timmis, Sr., of 619 Conewango avenue, has left to resume his studies in the School of Theatre Arts, Pennsylvania State University, after serving three years in the United States Marine Corps.

Mrs. Katherine Bell, Home Service secretary of Warren County Red Cross Chapter, was among area workers in Franklin for a "claims meeting" conducted by Joseph P. Lippincott of Pittsburgh, field director for the Red Cross at Veterans' Administration hospitals.

Beverly Hanson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hanson, 111 Frank street, has left to enter the freshman class at Thiel College in Greenville. Member of this year's Warren High graduating class, she plans to specialize in secretarial preparation.

Raymond and Patti McCarthy, formerly of 404 Water St., have left for State College, where they have purchased a new trailer and will reside at Woodside Trailer Court. Raymond has enrolled in Penn State University, beginning his studies in engineering.

MCCORMICK CIRCLE McCormick Circle of North Warren Presbyterian church will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Henry Ebel, North State street, Thursday at 1:00 o'clock, and a good attendance is desired.

Their Eggbeaters Whip the Skies

Small 'Whirly-Girls' Group Wants to Grow Larger

BY ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Can you drive a car without making men mad? Are you able to pat your head and rub your tummy at the same time?

If so, ladies, you've got the two basic requirements for learning to fly a helicopter, according to Miss Jean Ross Howard, founder of one of the most exclusive women's organizations in the world.

They're women helicopter pilots in a club called Whirly-Girls. Only 18 of them belong. To qualify, a girl has to have a helicopter rating certified by the Civil Aeronautics Administration or the foreign equivalent. And that's not so easy.

You have to be good enough to solo a helicopter and carry passengers according to tough CAA standards of international rules.

"We're exclusive, but we don't want to stay that way," says Jean who is assistant to the director of the Helicopter Council of the Aircraft Industries Association.

She and the rest of the Whirly-Girls are trying to interest women in eggbeaters, and they don't mean the kitchen variety.

In the future they hope to establish scholarships to help other girls handle helicopters. The organization was started by 13 charter members on April 1, 1955.

"Women helicopter pilots can be extremely valuable as a reserve force for Civil Defense," says Jean.

"Anyone who is given the opportunity should be able to learn to fly a helicopter," she explains. But she adds that it does take a little coordination and previous experience with something mechanical.

That accounts for the head-tummy test and ability to drive a car.

It's a gross understatement to say that the present roster of Whirly-Girls is an unusual group of women.

For example, there's Mlle. Valerie Andre of Paris, a brain surgeon who won fame in India.

She learned to fly a helicopter and then carried wounded back to hospital areas through Communist gunfire. In all, she flew 126 helicopter missions and picked up more than 165 wounded.

Other Whirly-Girls include: Elynor Rudnick of Bakersfield, Calif., who operates a fleet of eight helicopters that dust crops, prospect for oil and do stunt work for the movies, among other things.

Mrs. June Reynolds of Candor,

Honoring proficient women in a difficult field, Miss Jean Ross Howard, of Washington, founded a club which gathers together those of her sex licensed to fly helicopters.

North Carolina, who has a helicopter dust crop business with her husband, Jack. This 27-year-old dynamic redhead is a mother of three.

Arlene Davis of Cleveland, Ohio, newest member of the Whirly-Girls. She's a commercial pilot for single and multi-engine land and sea planes and a flight instructor.

Madame Jacqueline Aurioi of France who recently was named one of the Harmon Award winners. She holds the title of the world's fastest woman pilot.

The presentation of the award to Mme Aurioi this fall may be the occasion for getting together many of the Whirly-Girls.

And when they do converge, it's something to hear. They don't hold a "meeting," by the way. When they gather it's a "hovering."

Conversation centers on words like cyclic control, collective pitch, tail rotors, torque forces and autorotation.

The Whirly-Girls do think helicopters could come in more appealing colors and have a few more comforts for ladies.

"But we're not feminists," cautions Jean Howard.

"Interested Citizen" Submits Facts on Ambulance Service

Some information not hitherto brought out in discussion on the ambulance service is contained in this letter from a well known resident of the borough:

"As an interested citizen a trial has been made to arrive at the truth of the ambulance situation. Inquiries of the Funeral Directors to get correct data and a lucid explanation have now borne fruit.

"There have been published at different times statements regarding the cost of the service with the inference that the cost is a loss to the directors.

"It is a report only of the maintenance cost of the ambulance service.

"This service is not a loss to the directors, as it is covered by the individual charges for the funeral services.

"The ambulance service is an emergency one, and according to the ethics of the service, is rendered, whether the service is to be paid for or not. A number of times it is not.

"The figures for the overall annual expense for the last year amounted to $15,233.55. Of approximately $5,000 to collect only $4,693.37 was paid. For the four directors this left a balance of $10,535.18.

"Each of the directors has an ambulance, with a considerable investment, and as time goes on there is deterioration in value.

"The service is on a 24-hour basis. When a call comes in, in the middle of the night, or in the event of a funeral service which has to be interrupted, the ambulance goes out, and this is an annoyance, which is not favorable to the best interests of the business.

"If a private company took over, there is an opinion that one ambulance and a station wagon with a cot would be sufficient for Warren. But the rates would have to be increased. Present rates, daytime $7.50; night call $10.00; out of town 25 cents a mile; Jamestown rates $15.00 and $20.00.

From years of experience the directors know all the important details of the business. Anyone considering taking up the work can get valuable information and suggestions how to conduct the business, with a fair return for the labor and sacrifice involved, at the same time rendering most necessary humanitarian service, the value of which can hardly be overestimated.

"In the event of the service going out of the hands of the directors, the charge for their funeral services would likely not be increased even in the face of probable increase in the cost of the service."

Warren County Civil Defense

Welfare Division
By MRS. MARGARET MESSERLY

The Emergency Welfare Division of Civil Defense is divided into four parts. Dr. Carl Whipple is the head and John Mallory is his assistant.

Mrs. A. H. Yeig is in charge of registration and inquiry with Mrs. Harold Baker and Mrs. Norman Johnson as assistants. This department handles the registration of and the inquiries about evacuees. Mrs. Yeig has trained a group of women to correctly handle registration and hopes to train many more in the future.

The care and housing of evacuees is under the Mass Care division. Mrs. E. J. Messerly is in charge of this work and Mrs. James Frantz is her assistant. The larger churches are organized as mass care centers. The women in each church have been instructed and are prepared to care for evacuees. There are also women from the smaller churches and other organizations who are formed into teams to help where ever needed.

If there are any women who would like to volunteer, either of the above divisions needs many more workers.

In the various boroughs and townships of the county Mass Care Centers have been organized and are located in churches.

community centers or Grange halls. Women of the communities are organized to take care of evacuees and register them.

The clothing of evacuees is taken care of by the clothing division in charge of Carl Lundahl and his assistants.

The Food Department is in charge of Deb Lewis and his assistants. This department is prepared to feed all the evacuees the town could take care of, and can prepare the food with any of the available fuels.

There should be at least one person from every family in Warren in some type of Civil Defense work. Names of volunteers will be received at the Civil Defense office and you will be placed wherever you desire.

County Resident Is Found Dead in Home By Granddaughter

Mrs. Alice Carson Bortzer, 79, of Pleasantville, RD 2, (Stewarts Run), was found dead at 4:30 p. m. yesterday at the home of her son, Clarence Bortzer of Titusville, RD 2.

Mrs. Bortzer had arrived Sunday night at her son's home for a short visit. She was discovered lying on the dining room floor about 4:30 p. m. yesterday by her granddaughter, Shirley, 15, when Shirley returned from school.

Ed Lowrey, Warren County coroner, attributed death to a coronary occlusion and placed the time of death at 1:30 p. m. yesterday.

She was born April 17, 1877, in Clarion County, a daughter of Jerry and Rebecca Payne Carson. In September, 1904, she was married in Forest County to Elmer J. Bortzer, who died March 18, 1941.

She was a lifelong member of the Pleasantville Free Methodist Church.

Mrs. Bortzer leaves six children: Mont Bortzer of Stewarts Run, Clarence Bortzer of Titusville, RD 2, Mrs. Frances Whitton of Marienville; Mrs. Inez Thompson of Conneaut Lake, Mrs. Maude Kurtz of Oil City and Harry Nelson of Niles, O.; 34 grandchildren; 21 great-grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. Clara Bingham of Stewarts Run and Mrs. Gaynell Stuck of Franklin; and two brothers, George Caron of Franklin and Clyde Carson of Oil City.

The funeral service will be held at 1:30 p. m. Thursday in the Mt. Zion Church near Tonawanda, where friends may call from 12:30 until the time of the funeral. Rev. E. E. Jacobs of Pleasantville, will officiate and burial will be in the church cemetery.

MELCHIOR ANDEREGG
Melchior Andereg, aged 87 and well known and respected resident of 112 Main street, North Warren, died at his home at 12:45 p. m. Monday, following several months of failing health.

Mr. Andereg was born in Berne, Switzerland, April 20, 1869, and came to North Warren more than 60 years ago. He operated a bakery there for a number of years and, later, served as custodian at North Warren School. He was a member of North Warren Presbyterian Church, also of the Golden Age Society.

Surviving are the following children: Mrs. Carl Lundahl, Carpenter, Calif.; Mrs. Hazel Jones, Starbuck; Glenn Andereg, Tucson, Ariz.; Mrs. Leslie Tatjes, Santa Barbara, Calif.; Mrs. Carl Douds, North Warren, and Mrs. Hugh Ollson, Alliance, O.; also nine grandchildren, six great-grandchildren, a number of nieces and nephews. His wife, Amanda, preceded him in death June 1, 1953.

Funeral services will be held at 2:30 Wednesday, conducted by his pastor, Rev. Robert Knapp, with interment following in Pine Grove cemetery at Russell.

BIRTH RECORD

Area Man Assists in 90,000 Mile Flight To Map Spaceways

Hanscom Field, Bedford, Mass. (AP)—A huge aircraft roared down the runways last week signalling the start of a strange 90,000-mile round-the-world flight designed to blaze new trails in space travel.

A driving rain swept the field as the giant four-engine KC97 pointed its nose into the air at 2 p. m. Saturday, Pittsburgh time.

Scientists and a specially-selected crew from the Strategic Air Command's Second Air Force will be gone for three months as they circle the earth probing the magnetic field which extends thousands of miles beyond the earth's surface.

Assisting with the flight is Robert Morley, RD 3, Sugar Grove. A veteran of four years in the Air Force, Roger recently signed up for another six year hitch.

Whether the expedition will incidentally provide data that will help in launching America's planned man-made moon or of it will yield information valuable for guided missile research, the Air Force scientists do not say.

The craft with ten men aboard will airlift a 1,500 pound cosmic ray monitor around the world at altitudes of about 18,000 feet. It will fly a zig-zag path criss-crossing the Equator, a thousand miles to the north and south.

Leaping ahead of the big plane was a C-124 "Globe-master" with an extra crew, equipment and supplies. First stop on the flight was MacDill Air Force Base at Tampa, Fla.

Then it heads for South America, Africa, Asia and Australia, crosses the Pacific to the United States west coast and returns to Tampa.

In other Township business the bid of the Coyle Bridge & Supply Co. for an arch bridge for Dougherty Run Road was accepted. Bids on a similar bridge for the Weiler Road will be opened and a contract awarded on Sept. 28th.

Delegations were present from the Weiler Road and from the Farm Colony area to present to the Board their Flood problems. The Farm Colony problem will be submitted to the District Township Engineer for his recommendations. James Stockhill reported that work is progressing as fast as possible on repairing the extensive damage to many Township roads caused by the frequent heavy rainfalls during the summer. This frequent and extensive damage to Township roads has been a heavy financial burden to the Township.

Officer Claude Rhodes submitted the monthly report of the Township Police.

After discussion of other routine Township business the meeting adjourned at 12:15 a. m. Those attending the meeting were Supervisors Robert Mahan, James Stockhill, and Ralph Ward Jr., secretary Fred Berry and Township Solicitor James Frantz.

9 a. m. just a few minutes after the vice president finished speaking.

Indianapolis, Ind. (AP)—Vice President Nixon said today the Eisenhower administration "deserves a vote of confidence" because it "got the United States out of one war, kept it out of others and offers the best hope for peace without surrender."

Nixon, in the first prepared speech of a 15,000-mile political barnstorming swing, hit hard on the "peace and prosperity" theme on which the Republican campaign is based this year.

"The great majority of the American people have enjoyed the best four years of their lives under the Eisenhower administration," he declared.

Naval Laboratory Picks Up Signals From Planet Mars

Washington (AP)—The Navy today announced the first detection of radio waves from the planet Mars.

They were picked up with a 600-inch radio telescope at the Naval Research Laboratory here by the same team that earlier this year detected radio radiation from the planet Venus.

The Navy scientists said the recorded radio emissions from Mars indicated the planet's average temperature to be slightly lower than the freezing point of water, which is 32 degrees Fahrenheit. Additional efforts are being made to obtain more accurate measures of Mars' temperatures.

The signals, picked up on two clear nights during the week of Sept. 9, when Mars was at its nearest point to the earth, were measured at a wave length of three centimeters.

The signals were so weak, the Navy researchers said, that more than 50 measurements were necessary to establish the certainty that the radio emissions came from Mars.

False Alarm Turned in by Three-Year-Old Youngster

Meadville (AP)—Three-year-old Kathy Kamas and her pals found a way to set fire engine sirens wailing—by pulling an alarm box—but they couldn't figure a way to turn them off.

"Daddy, I can't turn them off," Kathy yesterday told her dad, John, a reporter for the Meadville Tribune Newspapers.

"I didn't know what she meant but by that time the fire engines were outside my house," Kamas said.

"I saw Kathy's tricycle next to the telephone pole and one of her playmates was swinging from a fire alarm box. Then, it dawned on me I asked Kathy if she had turned in a fire alarm. There had been two other false alarms here today."

Kathy said "well, Daddy, some kids told me if I pulled that box I could turn on the sirens. But I couldn't turn them off."

Texas Prison Inmates Slash Selves With Razor

Huntsville, Tex. (AP)—Twenty-eight of the toughest inmates in the Texas prison system slashed themselves with razor blades last night in a protest against prison food.

They were among the 76 involved in a strike in the maximum security unit last week in another protest involving the food, Prison General Manager O. B. Ellis said.

Ellis said 10 of the men severed their heel tendons and 18 inflicted superficial wounds on arms and legs.

Ellis said the prison food is as good as any in the best prisons.

Executive Is Principal Suspect in Acid Assault

New York (AP)—The FBI and the Manhattan district attorney's staff are conducting a nationwide search for a dressmaking firm executive in the acid blinding of labor columnist Victor Riesel.

The wanted man, Theodore Rij, 43, is described by authorities as a "close associate" of racketeer John Johnny Dio Dioguardi, 42, alleged ringleader of six men under indictment with him in the Riesel case.

Officials indicated that Rij may have been one of Dio's bodyguards.

U. S. Attorney Paul W. Williams said his men have been seeking Rij since shortly after the blinding acid was thrown into Riesel's face on a street just off Broadway early April 5.

Sherwood, Supervising Principal of Brokenstraw Valley Joint Schools is a third appraiser selected by the other two. Bids for the proposed addition to the school are to be opened September 25th by the Conewango Township School Building Authority which will sell bonds to finance the school building.

President Expands His Upcoming Trip to Iowa

Washington (AP)—President Eisenhower today expanded the plans for his upcoming trip to Iowa to include an airport speech in Des Moines and an overnight stay in Boone, where Mrs. Eisenhower was born.

White House press secretary James C. Hagerty said Eisenhower will fly to Des Moines Thursday afternoon and motor about 60 miles to Boone.

The President and Mrs. Eisenhower will stay at the home of Mrs. Eisenhower's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Joel Cailson, Mrs. John S. Doud, Mrs. Eisenhower's mother, was born in the house now occupied by the Cailsons. Mrs. Eisenhower was born in another house in Boone.

After his appearance at the national field days and plowing contest near Newton, Iowa, at midday Friday, Eisenhower will motor to Des Moines for an informal address at the airport there before he returns to Washington.

Gray Draft Case Handled in Usual Manner Board Says

Washington (AP) — Selective Service said today the draft case of Fred D. Gray, 25-year-old Montgomery, Ala., Negro lawyer, had been handled "in the usual, routine manner."

Three members of Montgomery Draft Board 51 resigned yesterday and said "political pressure" had caused Selective Service Director Lewis B. Hershey to overrule their order for induction of the Negro attorney.

Gray has been a spokesman for the Negro bus boycott now in its 10th month in Montgomery. A series of appeals followed his reclassification to 1A last February.

A Selective Service spokesman said today that Hershey had no comment.

The spokesman said the case was handled "in the usual, routine manner." He said Hershey had received what he considered might be new evidence that Gray was full-time pastor of a church he had formerly served on a part-time basis.

He said Hershey had requested the local board to reopen the case to consider this and then, under authority given him in presidential regulations, had directed the board to do so.

Truman's Talk

In Kansas City, Truman declined comment on Stevenson's remarks.

In his comment on Alger Hiss, which amounted to backing politely away from Truman on that matter, Stevenson said that in reading him on Hiss such Republican leaders as Vice President Nixon and GOP National Chairman Leonard W. Hall are "back on the same low road they traveled" during the 1954 congressional campaign.

Stevenson called on Eisenhower to say whether he approves "this sort of campaigning." There was no White House comment.

It was Stevenson's first formal news conference since he was nominated. He came, with apologies for being almost half an hour late, to a crowded ballroom of the Park Sheraton Hotel with two prepared statements in anticipation of questions which were asked of him.

The first was on the Suez crisis —Did he regard the administration's handling of it as a fair campaign issue?

KING CARL SWINGS BUST-UP BAT FOR WINNING DODGERS

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

Carl Furillo, tagged for a quick swap if a good pitcher had been available in June, is King Carl again in Brooklyn today, spearheading the Dodgers' September drive for the National League pennant.

Game after game it's been one of Brooklyn's old pros and there's a flock of 'em getting the job done. But more often than not, it's been Furillo swinging the bust-up bat in the close ones.

He was at it again last night, knocking in two runs with a two-out first-inning single and then wrapping up the Dodgers' fourth straight victory with a 10th-inning home run that beat Cincinnati 5-4 and hoisted the Brooks into a one-game lead.

Milwaukee's second-place Braves, their pitching crumbling a little more every game, split a two-night pair with the New York Giants, winning 4-1 behind old reliable Warren Spahn after suffering their first defeat of the season in the Polo Grounds 7-2.

BE SURE DOWNED GAME IS DEAD

DO NOT START DRESSING OUT A BIG GAME ANIMAL UNLESS YOU KNOW IT IS DEAD. HOLD LOADED GUN IN ONE HAND AND A LONG STICK, TREE LIMB, OR PIECE OF BRUSH IN THE OTHER TO SWEEP ACROSS THE ANIMAL'S EYES AFTER A CAUTIOUS APPROACH (DO NOT GET TOO CLOSE; YOU MAY HAVE TO JUMP BACK AND SHOOT AGAIN). IF HIS EYES DON'T TWITCH, START DRESSING THE GAME. IF HIS EYES REACT FROM BRUSHING, PUT A SHOT THROUGH HEAD (IF IT IS A TROPHY HEAD YOU WANT MOUNTED, SHOOT FROM TOP OF THE BACK THROUGH BACKBONE TO HEART).

THIS PRECAUTION CAN PREVENT A DANGEROUS (OR DEADLY) ACCIDENT.

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT

By The Associated Press

New York—Pat McAteer, 160, England, outpointed Jerry Luedee, 164½, New Haven, Conn., 10.

New Orleans—Willie Vaughn, 159, Hollywood, Calif., outpointed Charley Joseph, 160, New Orleans, 10.

Feller and Rosen Are Counted Out of Cleveland Future

Cleveland (AP)—General Manager Hank Greenberg has counted third baseman Al Rosen and pitcher Bob Feller out of the Cleveland Indians' plans for next season.

At a luncheon speech yesterday Greenberg said that he would offer Feller a non-playing job with the Tribe before this season ends. Rosen, Hank declared, might "be better off playing somewhere else" because he has "completely lost his confidence."

"Confidence is an important factor, and I'm afraid Rosen has reached the point where he can't play here anymore," Greenberg said.

Rosen, who will be 32 next March and is in his eighth season with Cleveland, is batting only .269 this season, has hit 14 home runs and has driven in 55 runs. That compared with his 1953 peak of a .336 average, 43 homers and 145 RBIs—a performance that earned him unanimous selection as the league's Most Valuable Player.

Feller, nearing 38, made his first start in more than four months Saturday and pitched his only complete game this season, losing a seven-hitter to Boston 5-3. He has two other losses to show for 40 additional innings of work, including one start in April and another in May.

Last night Rosen indicated at night retire from baseball.

"I've had a lot of injuries this summer," he said. "My neck and back have bothered me most of the time. Maybe I'm at that age when you become injury prone."

"At any rate, I plan to have a complete physical examination next month. I wanted to do this in as high class a manner as possible, as this whole thing is embarrassing for me. When I make up my mind and arrive at a decision, there won't be any reconsidering."

Feller's reaction to Greenberg's offer of another job was that he would "have a talk with myself" before seeing Greenberg and that he wanted no "manufactured work."

YESTERDAY'S STARS

By The Associated Press

Pitching — Warren Spahn, Braves, gave up a first inning run, then blanked Giants rest of the way with his nine-hitter, leaving 13 on base, to win 4-1 and end Braves' losing streak at three after Giants won 7-2 in opener of two-night pair.

Hitting — Carl Furillo, Dodgers, drove in two first-inning runs with a single, then broke up 4-4 tie in 10th with 20th home run for 5-4 victory over Redlegs that gave Dodgers one-game lead in National League race.

McAteer Gets Off Canvas To Defeat Six-Foot Luedee

By MURRAY ROSE

New York (AP)—A $5,600 gamble has paid off today for British Empire middleweight champion Pat McAteer and Manager Johnny Campbell.

The handsome, 24-year-old invader scored an impressive and popular unanimous decision over rugged Jerry Luedee in his American debut last night and had assurances of plenty of work when he makes a second trip to the United States. He won the plaudits of the fans by getting off the deck in the second round to come on and wallop the New Haven six-footer.

"It was well worth the risk," said Campbell after his protege's solid victory in a telecast 10-rounder at St. Nicholas Arena. "We tried for 12 months to get the International Boxing Club to bring Pat over here. They weren't interested."

"So I decided I'd be like a salesman and display my goods. We paid our own way over and invested 2,000 pounds ($5,600) all told in getting Pat ready. Teddy Brenner (St. Nick's matchmaker) saw Pat in the gym and booked him. Now that Pat's a hit here we know there will be plenty of offers."

For a few moments in the second round last night, however, it looked like Pat was ready to head back to the prelim ranks and had tossed his 2,000 pounds into the ocean.

A right to the jaw in the second dropped Pat to the canvas. But

WARREN ELKS WILL MEET JIMTOWN GOLFERS
Posted on the bulletin board of the Elk club is a letter inviting golfers in the lodge to engage in a "friendly golf match" with members of the Jamestown Club at the Moonbrook course Wednesday afternoon, September 26th. Following the tournament dinner will be served and prizes will be distributed. Already almost a dozen members of the Warren organization have signified their intention of participating.

he leaped up at four and coolly listened to Referee Barney Felix toll the mandatory eight count. Seconds later he had Luedee in trouble from a short right to the jaw. He staggered the unranked but never knocked out Luedee at least three more times in the lively scrap.

Felix and Judge Bill Recht each had Pat ahead, 6-3-1. Judge Artie Aidala had the visitor a 6-4 winner. The AP card had McAteer in front, 6-3-1.

Luedee outweighed his rival, 164½ to 160, after sweating off four pounds from the noon weighing in to 2 p. m. He had agreed to make 165.

Wiffi and Flippin Paired in Second Round of USGWA

Indianapolis (P) — Margaret (Wiffi) Smith, freckled muscle girl of international amateur golf, drew her Curtis Cup team captain, Mrs. Harrison F. Flippin of Ardmore Pa., in today's second round of the 56th USGA Women's Amateur.

Wiffi, 19-year-old out of the one mould as pro Patty Berg, has won 19 of 20 tournament matches this year, captured the British and French championships and turned in the best U. S. Curtis Cup performance.

The new Texan, a recent emigrant to Orange, Tex., from St. Clair, Mich., was a pre-tournament favorite. But while she was sitting out the first round with a bye, some of the other 104 starters were playing golf too stylish to be downgraded.

Anne Quast of Everett, Wash., Western champion and Curtis Cup alternate, turned in the best card of the first round in a 6 and 5 victory over Cynthia Sullivan of Harrisburg, Pa.

Miss Quast, winner of the North and South tourney last winter, shot a 1-over-par 37 on the front nine. Then she won the last four holes, burie-par-burdie-par, one under for 13 holes.

Jane Nelson of Indianapolis, another Curtis Cupper and runner-up to Pat Lesser of Seattle in last year's tourney, avenged her 1953 defeat in the women's Western final. The wisecracking Jane got even with Mrs. Robert J. Stanick of Cleveland, the former Claire Doran, by shooting the day's only par 36 on the front nine and winning, 2 and 1.

Miss Lesser, who won both the USGA and Western amateurs last year, advanced over Sally Carroll of Wheeling, W. Va., 6 and 5, and plays young Judi Keesline of Indianapolis today.

Popular Employee at Hospital Is Resigning

Today will be the last day when the hundreds of calls to Warren General Hospital will be answered by the warm, friendly voice of Mrs. "Jo" Pasquino, as she is resigning her position. "Jo" has worked at the hospital since 1953 in the capacity of switchboard operator, but has brought much more than that to her job as she is a friend to everyone, and is always ready with her cheerful smile and courteous manner to assist in any way possible. "Jo" will be greatly missed by a host of friends. "Jo's" immediate plans are to stay home and keep house for her husband, Sam, and daughter, who will be remembered as the 1956 Fourth of July Celebration Queen, Betty Ann Pasquino. They reside at 18 Jefferson avenue. "Jo" also has another daughter who is married.

RED CIRCLE

Youngsville — Mrs. Willis Kay, Ford street, will entertain Red Circle at her home tomorrow afternoon at 2.30, and a good attendance is anticipated.

COURT INVITED

Members of Court Warren, Catholic Daughters of America, have been invited to attend installation ceremonies of Court St Rita at Oil City Wednesday evening.

GARDEN CLUB LUNCHEON

Sheffield — Garden Club will have a 1:00 o'clock luncheon at Pinecrest Camp tomorrow, with Mrs. Evelyn P. Gaulor as hostess, assisted by Mrs. Frank Byrne and Mrs. Harry Michel. Roll call will be answered by naming favorite fall flowers. Officers for the coming year are: Letta Pinney, president; Mrs. Otto Mayer, vice president; Mrs. A. S. Brown, secretary; Mrs. George Conquer, treasurer; Mrs. Harry Priset and Mrs. Joe Curtin, executive committee; garden therapy, Mrs. Harry Priset; horticulture, Mrs. Fred Carlson; landscape, Mrs. Earl McCaskey.

EVENING CLASSES

Joseph V. Passaro, principal of Warren High School, announces registration for evening classes will begin at 7:00 p. m. next Monday, September 24. Instruction will be provided by Pennsylvania State University for classes in fuel technology, petroleum refining, and metallurgy; also classes in day-school subjects taught by local faculty members if the required 20 persons request them. Additional information has been provided by Mr. Passaro concerning both types of instruction and will be published in tomorrow's issue.

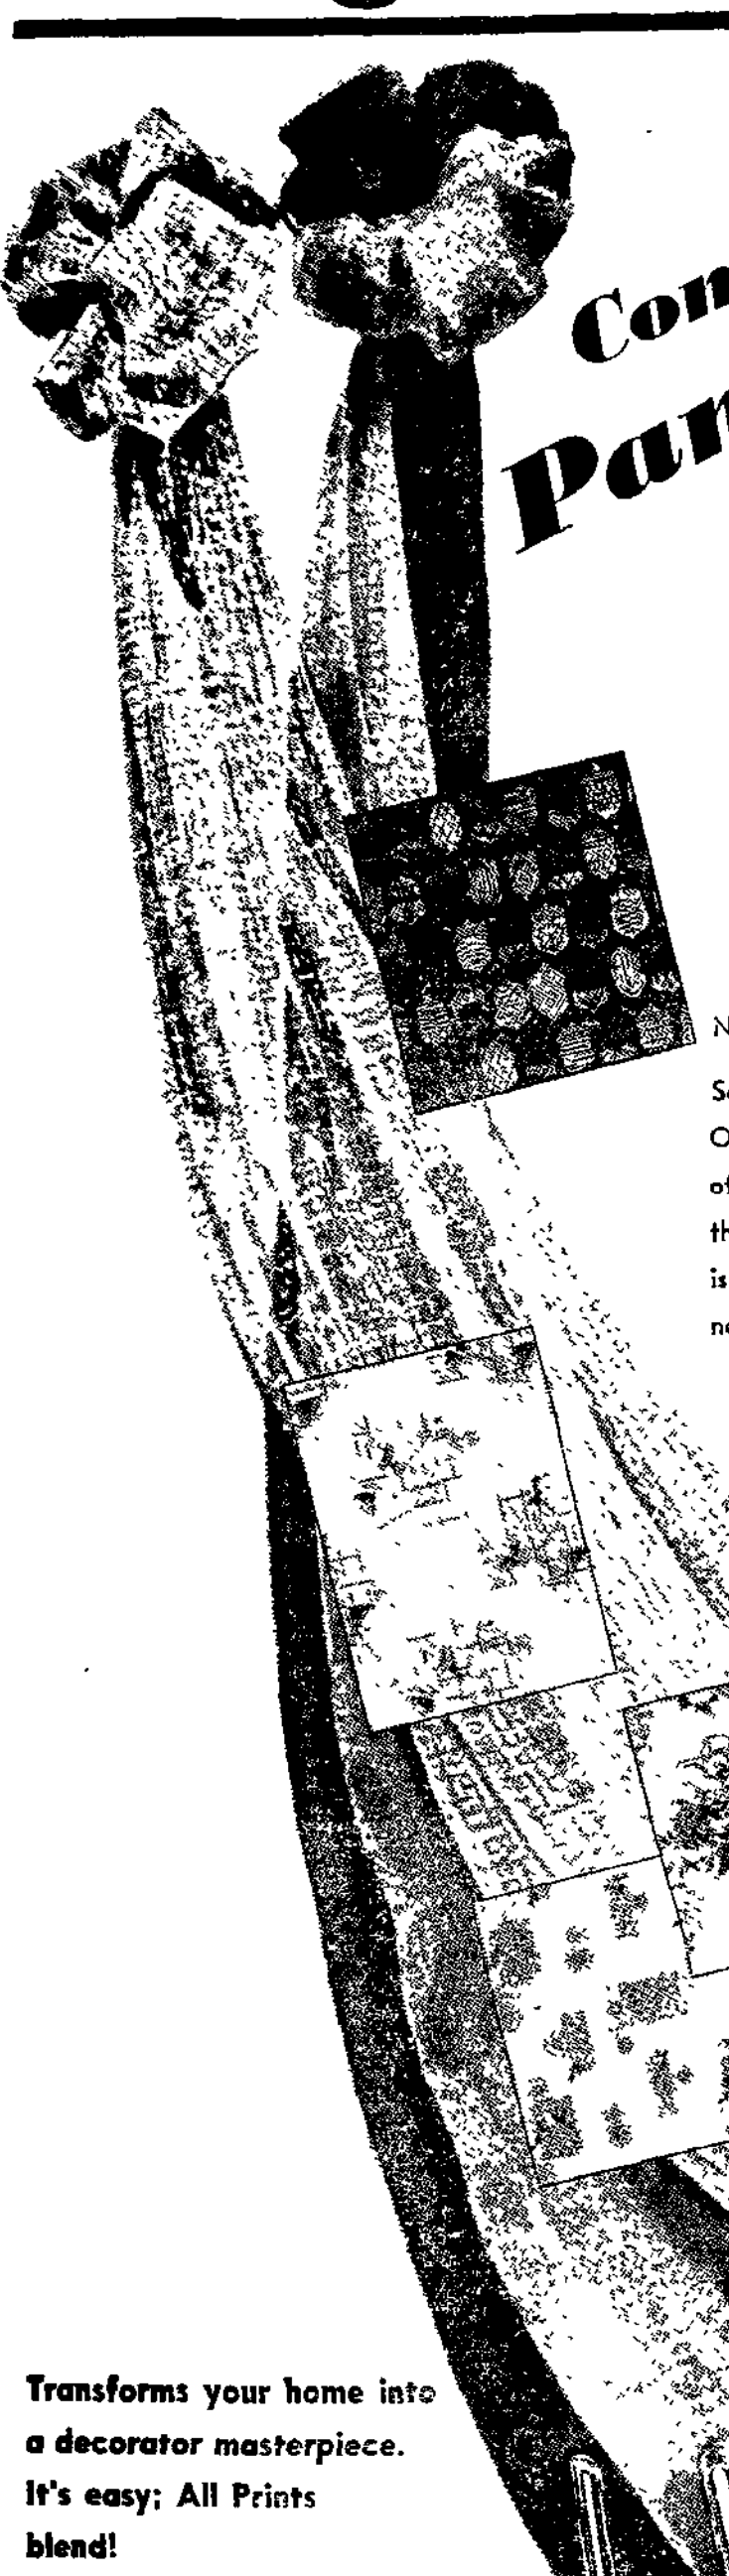

YMCA COMMITTEES

In a well-attended meeting of YMCA board members, held last evening, President Alan H. Templeton announced appointment of his standing committees for the coming year. These names and other action of the board will be printed in Wednesday's issue.

SOPHOMORE OFFICERS

Completion of elections for sophomore class officers is announced by the high school, with Patty Lanman and Joe Massa as co-presidents; secretary, Kathleen Walters; treasurer, Don McKelvy.
